Marketing

At TYGA we like to go the extra mile. Rather than simply designing you a brochure, we ask whether it's a brochure you really need. We look at the overall image of your company and help you to decide the best way to promote it. It could be strategic placement of advertising, buying in contact lists, promoting your web site, or completely re-branding your product or service. We have the back-up of fully qualified and experienced marketing personnel who can give you the best advice.

“...I would just like to thank you. We are thrilled with the web site, absolutely spot on!”

Simon Reid - Head of 3D - Thumbprint 3D Graphics & 2D Post

Digital

TYGA not only have the design knowledge, but also the technical know how to produce a bespoke web site, an informative CD-Rom, a 'track-and-trace' email campaign, or a screen saver for your employees/customers.
